

Mayor's report

Welcome to 2022 and I hope after the last 2 years 2022 brings us all a better year, especially after the restrictions we have all shared.

Civic Sunday September 12th, 2021.

Adlington Town Mayor, Kevin O'Donnell, and ATC Councillors, hosted CIVIC SUNDAY at St Paul's Church and afterwards at St Paul's club. It is a tradition going back many years and usually held in June. Thank you to everyone involved in the organisation and support of this day, but especially to St Paul's Church, the visiting vicar, Fr David Sutton, and the wardens for organising a beautiful church service. The service was accompanied by the Rivington & Adlington Band, and they sounded wonderful as always.

The Adlington Town Council Civic awards for 2020 and 2021 were presented in the club after the church service. These are awarded to residents of Adlington who have been nominated by someone in the community for something they have done, in or for the community, and contribute to our society and make it all the richer.

Remembrance Sunday 14th November 2021

We assembled on this day to remember those local people who had fallen in service of this country. We paraded from the Community Centre to the Church where the vicar joined us, and we returned to the Cenotaph on Railway Road for the memorial service.

Diligent research work of newly released archives by Cllr Stuart Clewlow has unearthed the names of four people from the district, who had died in service of our Country: Joseph Wiggam (1914), George Henry Tapping (1917), Elsie Rawlinson (1943), and John Glover Chadwick (1954). Adlington Town Council agreed to fund and commission two new plaques to honour those individuals and they were added to the War Memorial by Chorley Council in time for Remembrance Sunday 2021. The event was well attended and was blessed by good weather for this time of year. Lighting has also been installed to illuminate the war memorial and we hope to have it fully functioning for the planned Jubilee celebrations in June.

Carol Concert

Our year continued with our annual Carol Concert in the Community Centre in December, which was well attended, and all there enjoyed the chance to sing along and the lovely hot pot supper.

We thank you for your continued support and we hope to see you at our planned Jubilee Trail in June (see page 1).
